SONG STORIES:

TAKE ME BACK

“Take Me Back” is an “alternative rock/pop vibe” song with driving beats, echoing pop hooks, and a complexity that makes you want to dance. The lyrics tell the listener about remembering the good times, the early years, of a couple who were once on fire for each other. Their relationship may feel stale and while love isn't lost in their present state, they remember what it used to be like. Thankful for their journey, while at the same time not wanting to let staleness define their future.

DO IT ALL AGAIN

“Do It All Again” is a dramatic, soulful expression of wanting something you know is bad for you. The big emotive vocal vibrato and minor key signature immediately take the listener to a soulful vibe with the high octave keys in the opening notes of the song. Like a vein crippled from the same drug over and over, the lyrics describe that feeling of when someone finds themselves going back to the relationship that doesn't serve them like it should.

YOU GOT A HOLD ON ME

“You Got A Hold On Me” is a fun, playful pop song with elements of soul that speaks of unexpected love in all the right places. Sometimes the best relationships are the ones we didn't foresee and the reality of when you know yours two hearts are intertwined, unable to be separated. The layered bridge and chorus at the end of the song are especially ear catching.

I'M RELEASING

“I'm Releasing” is a driving, pop song with angst and internal conflict. The lyrics describe the dichotomy of inner conflict when one desires control while simultaneously being so tired of having that same control. It's the plight of wanting to let go but being so fearful to release the reins.

HOW DO I GET THERE

“How Do I Get There” is a songwriter's lament of deep truth: you were aiming for something that you fell very short of and are now picking up the pieces of this reality. With a haunting minor key signature and openly spaced chords in the opening of the song, the song marries folk and pop. The lyrics describe the feeling that you're supposed to accomplish a certain thing by a certain age and yet, how one wrestles with disappointment when you're far from where you think you're supposed to be.
